JULY 4 PROVES GALA DAY AT AMERICAN FORK

AMERICAN FORK, July 4,-The celebration here proved to be a gala day for the people of American Fork and neighboring settlements. It proved to be one of the greatest celebrations ever held in American Fork, but there was one thing that was noticeably absent, and that was the parade.

The celebration began at daybreak by the firing of cannon, under the direction of Col. Heber Huggard and Capt, James Blood, followed at sunrise by helsting of flag by Maj. Crookston, accompanied by the Provo brass band and American Fork

The folling of many bells was heard from 9 to 9:30 a. m. At 9:30 the citizens began assembling at the opera-house, and by 10 o'clock the house was packed to the doors with people who listened with great interest to the rendition of the following programme

Clarke; "Star-Spangled Banner," by Miss Edith Hind-Spangled Banner," by Miss Edith Hind-ley; reading Declaration of Independence by W. E. In the afternoon there were all kinds of sports, such as foot racing, bleyele racing and hurdle racing, jumping, high kicking, and kicking that wasn't so high. At 2.20 p. m. the burley miners from Mammoth crossed sticks with the champions of Alpine stake for a 440 prize to the winners. The day closed with a ball at Apollo hall.

Representatives of the day were: Miss
Rebecca Suider, "Goddess of Liberty;"
Miss Mae Wagstaff, "Utah," and John

Within a few days Arthur Dickerson will have ready for public demonstration the steam engine on which he has secured both United States and foreign patents. The engine is of a fotary pattern, and with which the inventor claims he can effect a saving in fuel and steam, doing with ten pounds of steam what it will take 199 pounds of steam to do with the old-style engines.

PARK CITY

PARK DECORATED AND

CELEBRATED FOURTH

PARK CITY, July 4.-It is the opinion f a great many that the celebration held ere today was the best that the cump ver witnessed. The business portion of the town was one continuous mass of red, white and blue, and nine-tenths of the esidences also were profusely yet tastefully decorated with the National colors, thile the American flag is floating from early every business house and private come in the city. The stores were closed and every mine shut down for two or three days and there was nothing to do three days and there was nothing to do but to make the day a glorious one.

Few persons left the camp to celebrate elsewhere and the streets were thronged from early morning. Notwithstanding the crowds, the best of order prevailed.

In a camp such as this the greatest danger on an occasion of this kind is from fire, but the city officers have shown their appreciation of such danger by taking every necessary precaution to prevent a conflagration. For a week a force of men has been at work clearing the streets and alleys of all rubbish and during the entire day the chemical engine and hose carts stood in readiness for immediate action with a band of volunteer remein near at hand. The general committee and sil subcommittees worked hard and faithfully, and nothing was left undone to make the day a success.

Early this morning the firing of anvits and the martial music of the drum corps as it paraded the principal streets aroused the people and it was not long until Main street was crowded with men, women and children.

At 19 oclock sharp the parade began, the line-up being as follows: Mounted police, mounted flagbearer, marshal and his sides, Park City military band, Grand Army of the Republic, Spanish-American veterans, Mayor and City Council, car of state, followed by various floats, citizens in carriages and on horseback, the Park City firm corps, secret orders and unions, Park City Fire department, horribles and school children. On no former occasion have there been so many in line, nor did the parade ever present a better appearance. The line of march was up Park avenue to the head of Main street, down Main street to Heber avenue, and countermarch on Main street to the band stand, where the following exercises were held. The celebration in general today demonstrates beyond a doubt that Park City is still an active, wide-awake mining camp.

William Pickert, salesman in the M. S. Asheim Mercantile Clothing company, met with a painful accident this afternoon. A companion of Pickert's lighted a cannon cracker and threw it toward the middle of the street. Instead of going into the street it fell upon the sidewalk and failed to explode. Pickert then picked it up and just as he did so it exploded, blowing the first inger off his right hand at the second joint and otherwise lacerating his hand. It also tore a great hole in his clothing and burned his abdomen quite seriously. The injured man was taken to the office of Dr. Ward, where his wounds were dressed by Drs. Ward, Hofmer and Le Compte. It is thought that, aside from the loss of a finger, no further permanent injury will result.

A fire scare took place at 5 o'clock this afternoon when a small boy touched a lighted match to the hunting in front of M. D. Herberts' drug stere. A fire alarm was turned in and the fire whistle caused great consternation for a few minutes among the crowd on Main street. However, before the engine reached the store the bunting had been torn from the building and thrown into the street.

Much to his surprise a ball flew out of the barrel and a fragment of the bullet passed through his hand. He left yesterday on his annual vacation for the Pine valley country, where he will spend several weeks in trout fishing and hunting. the purpose of securing his freedom on bond. None of the officers of the fed-eration were at the depot to greet him, although a crowd was gathered on the depot platform, in which was a group of deported Crippie Creek and Telluride miners. The only demonstration occurred as Sheriff Bell and his charge were stepping on a street-car. Three cheers for Moyer were called for, and given with zest. The party went of given with zest. The party went at once to a hotel and registered. Sheriff Bell said that nothing would be done in the matter of Moyer's bond until tomorrow. It is understood that all preliminaries to supplying bond for $10,000 have been arranged and that to-morrow the formal signing of the bond will occur and Moyer be set free. Moyer has been confined as a milltary and civil prisoner for 162 days. He is at present charged with murder and conspiracy, and assault with intent to commit murder, as a result of the riot at Victor, Colo., the day following the Independence explosion. The informa-tions filed against Moyer are the outgrowth of a circular issued by the old executive board of the Western Federa-tion of Miners, and are based on the Illinois case of August Spies, who, though far away from the scenes of the Haymarket riot, was held equally guilty with the actual participants be-cause of certain writing and speeches which, it was claimed, incited others to riot.

Sheriff Bell has a half-dozen or more warrants against other federation officials, whose names he refused to disclose, which, he says, he will serve tomorrow. It is the understanding that the persons concerned have arranged to furnish bond immediately after service of the warrants.
